6.2.2 Implementation of e-governance in areas of operations.

Introduction

E-Governance Policy of the institution's academic, administrative, student support, financial, examination library, and website are clearly laid pronounced. For the "Policy on E-Governance of Union Education Society's Mahila Mahavidyalaya Solapur." to be implemented quickly and effectively to its advantage, this document serves as a supporting document. The E-Governance Policy elaborately illuminates the utilization of e-Government systems. The Management, Academicians, supporting staff, Technical staff, Librarians, Controller of Examination and all the members of the institution has to configure and communicate with an API-based e-Governance system.

The decision was made to adopt and execute E-Governance with the ample number of activities in order to give a more straightforward and effective system of governance inside the organization. E-governance has already been implemented in the institution in few areas of operation, such as Administration, student admission and support, finance and accounting, and examination. Digital and social media help the college to advertise the activities.

Domains of E-Governance: The policy is broken down into several operational areas for easy. These operational areas are merely examples, and the college retains the authority to use e- governance.

Planning and Development

The College has developed its own website to plan & announce the activities for the upliftments of the students. The details information about Academic calendar code of conduct for different stake holder, college committees, and statutory committees has been uploaded.

Administration

The college administration uses its website to intimate about various forthcoming activities and events, Academic schedule Examination schedule, Due dates of the admission, Examination forms etc.

The Department has created whats up group to communicate with students. This also helps to restructure the programme schedule. The majority of the administrative tasks of the college are carried out using ICT-based technologies to create a hassle-free, practical, and seamless approach. 'CIMS is used as Administrative module. The software's features include employee attendance, salary and employee profiles.

Finance and Account

The account section use "HTE Sevaarth Pranali" to submit the advanced budget of the college to the state government of Maharashtra.

Students Admission and support

P.A.H Solapur University, Solapur provides access of "Maharashtra Knowledge Corporation limited (M.K.C.L), and also used E-Vidyapeeth" & E- Pravesh" software for the admission and support.

Examination

P.A.H Solapur University allowed sharing its M.K.C.L software to carry out like filling up and uploading examination forms, announcement of result, filling up examination forms for back log papers, print of examination Result.
